

Lynda Garvin
Sandoval County Cooperative Extension Service, Bernalillo, NM 87004
(505)867-2582 lgarvin@nmsu.edu

Education

Master of Science, Crop Protection, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado, 1992

Bachelor of Arts, Environmental Studies, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, 1980

Work Experience

Agriculture Agent, Associate Professor, New Mexico State University, Sandoval County Cooperative Extension Service, September 16, 2013 – Present

- Provide leadership and develop public education programs in agriculture, urban horticulture, organic production, produce safety, community and economic development.
- Manage the Sandoval County Master Gardener Program.
- Support local producers, farm to school, school garden programs, and farmers' markets in the planning, production, and marketing of fresh local produce.

Project Manager Urban & Peri-Urban Agriculture, CARE International, Monrovia, Liberia
April 2011 – June 2012

Director of Programming and Training, Peace Corps, Port Vila, Vanuatu, South Pacific
January 2008 – July 2010

Special Waste Coordinator, Virgin Islands Waste Management Authority, St. Croix
April 2007 – January 2008

Environmental Manager, Office of Agricultural Water Policy, South West Florida
November 2001 – December 2006

Extension Agent Florida Yards and Neighborhoods, University of Florida, Hernando County
April 2000-October 2001

Graduate Research Assistant, Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling, USF
August 1999-April 2000

District Coordinator, Food for the Hungry International, Marromeu, Mozambique
April 1997-April 1999

Associate Peace Corps Director, Agriculture and Maternal Child Health Education, Guinea-Bissau, West Africa
January 1994 – July 1996

Extension Associate, Plant Disease and Pest Diagnostic Clinic, Colorado State University
May 1990- April 1993

Research Assistant, Colorado State University, Integrated Pest Management Program
August 1996-April 1997

Campus Recruiter, Peace Corps, Colorado State University
September 1989- May 1992

Leadership and Professional Affiliations

Association of County Agriculture Agents, 2013 - present

North-central New Mexico Small Farms and Ranch Task Force, 2014 - present

American Society for Horticultural Science, 2017 - present

Rocky Mountain Seed Alliance, 2017 - present

Rebuilding Together Sandoval, board member, 2014 - 2016

Think Trees New Mexico, board member 2016 – present

Bernalillo Farmers' Market, board member 2016 - present