Procedure

M. Garments, sewing exhibits and Fashion Magic notebooks, labelled with participant name and county, are due by the close of registration opening day of State Conference – Late items will not be accepted.

N. Garments and sewing exhibits must be accompanied by a 4-H Fashion Revue Information Sheet 200.C-4 R-2019.

O. Items must be clean, pressed, and covered with a plastic film cover. Hangers and bags may not be returned.

P. Winning County Garments may be entered even though they have been worn.

E. Fashion Revue is a combination of an oral presentation, modeling of the garment or sewing exhibit and response to judge's questions. Contestants will have a total of 5 minutes for their oral presentation and to model on stage. Participants can determine how they use their 5 minutes. Example: oral presentation 1 ½ minutes and modeling 2 ½ minutes (1 ½ + 2 ½ = 4 minutes). Points will be deducted for using more than the allotted time. Responses to questions by the judges are not included in the 5 minute limit.

1. Participants will use the public address system for the oral presentation and music will be provided.
2. The following information should be included in the oral presentation
    a) Name and County
    b) Why did you choose this outfit?
    c) How does it fit in your wardrobe?
    d) Where do you plan to wear it?

*Participants may include additional information about their garment, project learning experiences and future plans.

F. Participants will have the opportunity to model their garment or item in a way to showcase their garment or item.

G. Participants will answer questions from the judges.

H. Modeling, presentations and interviews will be conducted on stage and spectators may attend. Only judges will be allowed to ask questions.

I. Contestant order will be determined by random drawing.

J. Ties will be broken by the sewing construction score or notebook score.

All Garments must meet current State and National Event Clothing Guidelines to be considered for awards. Failure to comply with Clothing Guidelines will result in disqualification.*
